NOVEMBER IS "TRADITIONS MONTH"

The Whisper Of Humility

This article, originally printed in the March, 1955 Grapevine, has been reprinted many times. It was written by Earle M., San Francisco, Cal., and is considered a classic...Ed.

One part of our great program - The Twelve Traditions - has come to mean life itself to me.

The Traditions, as written by our co-founder Bill, define for me clearly and precisely how to get well and stay well. They tell me who God is, what He does, and where He functions. They show me what spirituality is and how I may clarify what anonymity means.

Perhaps the most important of all, they point out the path toward humility. It is helpful that this path is not described bluntly; rather it is whispered to me in each Tradition.

Tradition One tells me that "Our common welfare should come first. . . . Not second or fourth or tenth, but first. Why? Because 'personal recovery depends upon AA unity.' So, I learn that after The Twelve Steps have been digested, my group, my AA, comes first; not myself, you understand, but my AA group or groups. My own recovery, my most prized possession, since it means life itself - depends upon my group's unity.

I am told how to stay well in Traditions One, and to my surprise, it dawns on me that I have received the first gentle whisper which nudges me along the path of humility.

Tradition Two tells me who God is, where He is, and what He does. It says, "For our group purpose there is but one ultimate authority. . . a loving God as He may express Himself in a specific location - my conscience. This is good news to me. I have wondered for over forty years where and who God was and what He did. Now I understand what was meant, long ago, by the command, "Be still and know that I am God."

I read on in the last half of Tradition Two and I find the second gentle whisper toward humility: "Our leaders (you and I) are but trusted servants; they do not govern." I love the clarity and force of that simple word 'but.' As a leader I am but a trusted servant: I need not govern. Thank God! I have been a dubiously trusted leader who felt that he must govern for too long: now I may be relieved of all of that. As God may express Himself in my conscience, I am His and your trusted servant, who governs only me!

Tradition Three tells me that "The only requirement for AA membership is a desire to stop drinking." To have a desire to stop anything is news to me. So I receive the third gentle whisper toward humility. As I hear and feel these gentle whispers I settle more and more each day to life size, and, as a Los Angeles member has said, "Life comes to be for free and for fun."

Tradition Four brings me clearly and simply into my own right. It says, "Each group should be autonomous, except in matters affecting other groups or AA as a whole." You and I are autonomous. Individually and collectively, we may do as we wish, we are unrestricted. . . except when we step on someone else's toes or when we step on a group's toes. Thus the fourth gentle whisper toward humility says to me, "Brother, the common welfare comes first for the truly spiritually selfish reason that your own recovery depends upon its continued existence."

Tradition Five defines in clear terms

my only reason for existence. There is no other for me: "Each group has but one primary purpose. . . to carry the message to the alcoholic who still suffers." There is my answer. I need purpose - and I have it! I must carry the message to the alcoholic who still suffers. So I say to myself, "Thank God for alcohol and for the unrecovered drunk!" And I hear a fifth gentle whisper toward humility deep within me which says, "At long last you have come to realize that service to others is all that you have to offer in this life!"

Tradition Six clarifies the spiritual side of this program. It says, "An AA group ought never endorse, finance, or lend the AA name to any related facility or outside enterprise, lest problems of money, property and prestige divert us from our primary spiritual aim." I'm glad to know this, because now I can be on guard. I have a primary spiritual aim which money, property and prestige can bust wide open and devour. I hear a sixth gentle whisper toward humility which says, "YOUR primary spiritual aim is to carry the message to the alcoholic who still suffers!" In the role of a trusted servant, I must follow the instructions of a loving authority who lives in the depths of my soul. It says, "In all reverence carry to the sick alcoholic the message that I have given you."

Tradition Seven tells me how to obtain peace of mind. It shows me how to regain my self-respect. At long last I understand the inner peace that comes from being responsible for myself, and to

IN MEMORIAM Heartfelt condolences to the family and friends of
FRANK ANDREW SHELLBERG
 (Newport Beach)

FRANK ANDREW SHELLBERG..
 There was a song in a familiar Broadway play that depicted the writers
 concept of a "sunrise" and a "sunset".
 There was a dream in Frank's heart that also had its sunrise and sunset.

Frank Shellberg's dream was to know sobriety and serenity--and to walk comfortably among his friends. He came to Southern California and experienced for the first time in many years the "sun rise" over the mountains--sober--- and each "sun set" over the ocean adding another day to his sobriety. Each day was a vibrantly new experience in learning to release old ideas and habits, and enjoying the NOW of nature's beauty as it unfolded, --always revealing something new. He basked and grew stronger in newness.

Frank died of injuries sustained in an automobile accident on September 16th, 1977. He was to see his last sun rise on the Island of Ibiza, Spain. His many friends are saddened to see his sun set for the last time.

May God bless you with eternal love and peace, Frank.
 Lovingly, Elaine W.
