 continuous sobriety and was very active in all phases of AA including institutional work, General Service and in his own groups.
 He was primarily a member of the Laguna Beach and Garden Grove groups and attended meetings regularly until his illness made this impossible.
 At one point in his illness he made the remark, " I know I'm very ill, but I'm still sober."

DISBANDED...
SANTA ANA SATURDAY
 (C), Disc. 2PM, 2112 N. Main St.

SALLY GORE McLEAN..
 Sally McLean passed away September 2, 1979.
 Sally actively shared, patiently listened and courageously exemplified the AA way of life. Her 31 years of sobriety saw her unselfish participation in activities of Clubs in Michigan and Canada as well as Santa Ana, Garden Grove and Orange, California.
 The legacy she left compensates in part for the loss to the many who knew her and loved her.

DONNA WAGGONER..
 Donna Waggoner had 31 years on the AA program. She came into AA in St Louis, Missouri in February 1948. In the early 50s moved to Oklahoma, in the late 50s
 she moved to Whittier where she was active in starting a newcomers meeting.
 When her health allowed it she attended
 many meetings in Orange County, particularly in the Tustin Area where she lived.

She was loved by all who knew her and will be sorely missed.

JOHN ENCELL
 John Encell started on the AA program 25 years ago in Laguna Beach. He was one of the first members of the Irvine and Tustin groups.

He was a reserved, quiet man but willing to be helpful when ever help was needed.
 He will be sorely missed by those who knew him and loved him.

INTERGROUP HIGHLIGHTS...

Forrest O., Chairman, opened the meeting at 8 P.M. with the Serenity Prayer and the Statement of Purpose. 51 Group Representatives were in attendance-including 11 newcomers.

Forrest asked that approval be given to the appointment of Helen S. to the Service Board to fill the unexpired term of Sandy D. Approval given. Due to illness of George D., Special Events, Helen will take over the Alk-A-Thon responsibility.

Public Relations, Pat B. reported that the next Public Information meeting will be held Tuesday, Oct. 18th for those interested.

In accordance with instructions given last month that the Reps check the group conscience on the 12 hour Alk-A-Thon this year instead of the 24 hour schedule previously planned. The membership approved the 12 hour plan. The event will be Saturday, Oct. 17th, from Noon to Midnight, at the Garden Grove Alano Club.

Forrest called attention to the ByLaws which needed to be changed to bring in accordance with the new terms of office. The proposed new ByLaws were read and Reps were asked to get their group conscience and they will be voted on next month.

Nominations were held for five positions on the Service Board. The following were nominated: Angie S. (Orange); Rolly W. (Newport Beach); Lew W. (Anaheim); Ray B. (Garden Grove); Pat I. (Sunset Beach); Bill C. (San Juan Cap.); Karl C. (Orange); John L. (Santa Ana) and Sheryl K. (Tustin).

More nominations will be accepted next month with the election to follow.

Flyers were passed out for the Traditions Meeting to be held Nov. 4th, 11AM at Hoag Hospital, Newport Beach.

MESSAGE FROM YOUR DELEGATE.....

At various times I have heard the month of November referred to as Gratitude Month, Thanksgiving Month and Traditions Month. Regardless of what special meaning it has for each of us it does seem to be a time of contemplation for all the Freedoms we have so generously been blessed with in our new lives as members of Alcoholics Anonymous.

The word Freedom in regard to the Traditions may sound strange but that is exactly what I find in practicing the Traditions as an extension of the Steps. The Traditions are teaching me to stay out of the way---my own as well as others.

1. By placing our common welfare first, rather than just my own, I am freed of the bondage of self centeredness.
 2. Freedom is being able to put my faith in the group conscience knowing it is God's will--- I no longer have to know what is best for everyone.
 3. Since we are all equals in A.A. with one common denominator, a desire to stop drinking, I am relieved of having to make judgement on who should and who should not be members of our Fellowship.
 4. The freedom to practice the A.A. program the way that is best for me. As long as I am considerate and don't mess things up for others, I can learn and grow in the way that fits me as an individual.
 5. Freedom is sharing with another alcoholic our message of sobriety, I don't have to have all the answers to life's problems.
 6. No longer do I have to be involved in all kinds of outside activities regardless of how worthy or attractive they might seem-- today I can keep it simple and concentrate on our singleness of purpose of carrying the message to the alcoholic who still suffers.
 7. All I have to do is carry my own weight in economic matters and support the things I believe in.
 8. Freedom is helping another alcoholic for fun and for free and to respect those who are willing to work full time for us in our Service Centers.
 9. To know that being one of the trusted servants requires no special talent beyond a desire to serve to the best of my ability and be responsible to those who put their trust in me.
 10. Free to have opinions that seem right to me--- not as a member of A.A. but as an individual--- as long as they are expressed in appropriate places.
 11. I am free to disclose my membership in Alcoholics Anonymous anytime I choose (except at the public level)--- but in so doing, I should set the best example I can in order to be an attraction to the Fellowship.
 12. The personality that gives me the most trouble is my own. Freedom comes when I put principles first--- the principle expressed is the important thing, not the person expressing it. Giving of oneself with no expectation of return is a true expression of that elusive spiritual quality we call Humility.
- If I am to find Humility through the practice of our Twelve Traditions, it will be the greatest freedom I will ever know.

The elections have taken place in the Mid-Southern-California Area and this will be my last Delegate's message. I have spent a great deal of time trying to find words to express my gratitude I feel for the opportunity to have served as your Delegate these past two years. For some reason the words just won't come to express the feeling I have. In reading Bill's "A.A. Way of Life" I found my answer. He says, "Gratitude should go forward rather than backward". So I'll simply say thank you for the trust you placed in me. My gratitude will have to be expressed by my continued willingness to serve Alcoholics Anonymous in any way God sees fit.

..... Goldene L., Delegate, Mid- Southern -California Area.

SHARING

The Whisper Of Humility

In observance of "Traditions Month"—as November was unofficially adopted throughout AA at a time of Thanksgiving for the blessings of our Fellowship—we are pleased to present again, from the March 1955 Grapevine, an article that does an unsurpassed job of personalizing AA's Twelve Traditions.

The Traditions, as written by our co-founder, Bill, define for me clearly and precisely how to get well and stay well. They tell me who God is, what He does, and where He functions. They show me what spirituality is and how I may seek and find it. They clarify what anonymity means.

Perhaps most important of all, they point out the path toward humility. It is helpful that this path is not described bluntly; rather it is whispered to me in each Tradition.

Tradition One tells me that "Our common welfare should come first. . . . Not second or fourth, or tenth, but FIRST. Why? Because 'personal recovery depends upon AA unity.'" So, I learn that after the Twelve Steps have been digested, my group, my AA, COMES FIRST; not myself, you understand, but my AA group or groups. My own recovery—my most prized possession, since it means life itself—depends upon my group's unity.

I am told how to stay well in Tradition One, and to my surprise, it dawns on me that I have received the first gentle whisper which nudges me along the path of Humility.

Tradition Two tells me who God is, where He is, and what He does. It says, "For our group purpose there is but one ultimate authority. . . . a loving God as He may express Himself in our group conscience." God expresses Himself in a specific location—my conscience. This is good news to me. I have wondered for over forty years where and who God was and what He did. Now I understand what was meant, long ago, by the command, "Be still and know that I am God."

I read on the last half of Tradition Two and I find the second gentle whisper toward humility: "Our leaders (you and I) are but trusted servants; they do not govern." I love the clarity and force of that simple word "but". As a leader I am but a trusted servant; I need not govern.

Thank God! I have been a dubiously trusted leader who felt that he must govern for too long; now I may be relieved of all of that. As God may express Himself in my conscience, I am His and your trusted servant, who governs only me!

Tradition Three tells me that "The only requirement for membership is a desire to stop drinking." To have a desire to stop anything is new to me. So I receive the third gentle whisper toward humility. As I hear and feel these gentle whispers I settle more and more each day to life size, and, as a Los Angeles member has said, "Life comes to be for free and for fun."

Tradition Four brings me clearly and simply into my own right. It says, "Each Group should be autonomous, except in matters affecting other groups or AA as a whole." You and I are autonomous. Individually and collectively, we may do as we wish, we are unrestricted. . . . EXCEPT when we step on someone else's toes or when we step on a group's toes. Thus the fourth gentle whisper toward humility says to me, "Brother, the common welfare comes first for the truly spiritually selfish reason that your own recovery depends upon its continued existence."

Tradition Five defines in clear terms my only reason for existence. There is no other for me: "Each group has but one primary purpose. . . . to carry its message to the alcoholic who still suffers." There is my answer. I need purpose—and I have it! I must carry the message to the alcoholic who still suffers. So I say to myself "Thank God for alcohol and the unrecovered drunk!" And I hear a fifth gentle whisper toward humility deep within me which says, "At long last you have come to realize that service to others is all that you have to offer in this life!"

Tradition Six clarifies the spiritual side of this program. It says, "An AA group ought never endorse, finance, or lend the AA name to any related facility or outside enterprise lest problems of money, property and prestige divert us from our primary spiritual aim." I'm glad to know this, because now I can be on guard. I have a primary spiritual aim which money, property and prestige can busy wide open and devour. I hear a sixth gentle whisper toward humility which says, "YOUR primary spiritual aim is to carry the message to the alcoholic who still suffers!" In the role of a trusted servant, I must follow the instructions of a loving authority who lives in the depths of my soul. It says, "In all reverence carry to the sick alcoholic the message that I have given you."

Tradition Seven tells me how to obtain peace of mind. It shows me how to regain my self-respect. At long last I understand the inner peace that comes from being responsible for myself and to myself. Tradition Seven says, "Every AA group ought to be fully self-supporting, declining outside contributions." What relief that is! No longer do I need to WAIT for contributions. I am free to GIVE contributions.

Tradition Eight gives to me, a professional man, the very keynote of humility: "Alcoholics Anonymous should remain forever non-professional, but our service centers may employ special workers." I know the professional life; I am in it up to my very ears; I love it. But I know one other thing too: in my life of service there is absolutely no room for professionalism. In AA I am an ordinary human being with no more skills than anyone else.

Tradition Nine astonishes me by stating, "AA as such ought never be organized; but we may create service boards or committees directly responsible to those they serve." You see, in the past, I have been so well organized (or so I thought) that I almost died from it! I was frightened at first to find that I needed to be in a group that wasn't organized. But in AA I am free to be myself as I find myself at the minute, and here I find another whisper toward humility; I can be on service boards or committees, and I can be a trusted servant who is directly responsible to you, my fellow AAs.

Tradition Ten pleases me very much. I read it daily with a joyful smile: "Alcoholics Anonymous has no opinion on outside issues; hence the AA name ought never be drawn into public controversy." Just think, as an AA member I need never be drawn into public controversy. I don't have to worry about being right. Never again! I don't have to fight anymore. I've had enough of controversy.

God love our good co-founder, Bill, for taking it easy on my befuddled brain. He held off giving me Tradition Eleven until I could hear and digest Tradition Ten. I read: "Our public relations policy is based on attraction rather than promotion; we need always maintain personal anonymity at the level of press, radio and films." Never again do I have to
