SEPTEMBER 1980

Applying the 'Four Absolutes'

For those interested in origins of things, a study of the influences, positive and negative, upon the thinking of Bill W. as he shaped the principles of Alcoholics Anonymous is well worth the time.

When Ebby T. visited Bill, he stated he had quit drinking because he had "got religion" after joining the Oxford Group. Briefly, the members of the Oxford Group hoped to find the kind of Christianity which was practiced in the beginning. By emphasizing self-survey, confession, restitution, and service to others, the group hoped to achieve a more perfect life.

Keeping in mind that Bill always had vowed to quit drinking if he ever got in the same shape as Ebby, the impact of the Oxford Group was hardly surprising. After all, Ebby gave his involvement credit for his sobriety.

Bill, of course, plunged in. He noted the many fine ideas the Group practiced. Its basic principle was a devotion to absolute honesty, absolute purity, absolute unselfishness, absolute love. By embracing these "Four Absolutes," members could prepare themselves for the conversion moment, bolt-of-lightning style, to which they could publicly bear witness.

Well-bred, well-educated, this group approached salvation by meeting in drawing rooms or parlors of private homes.

Enter Bill and a bunch of drunks from the soup kitchen of the Calvary Church mission and obvious problems arose. Presented with the highly structured evangelical standards of the Group these drunks rebelled. Boggled down by group pressures, one drunk exclaimed, "Absolutes, hell! I just want to stay sober today!"

Bill fared little better with the group he recruited by wandering the corridors of Towns Hospital. Many still had jobs. Homes were intact, although shakey. Declaring themselves publicly would brand them forever and they could not afford that.

Sharing sessions, a primary practice of the Oxford Group, were popular with the alcoholics who loved to tell their stories. However the Group found the stories frequently had more to do with the alcoholic's views of life and God than with the news of what God had done for them.

Members tried to impress the importance of listening for God's guidance, instances which the Group could check at meetings. That aspect of sharing was not popular, and the Group recommended increased quiet-time (Meditation) listening for God's voice. Bill and his group of alcoholics continued to pick and choose among the guidelines of the Oxford Group, with the result that the Wilson's lost favor and the alcoholics became a secret, ashamed, divergent sub-group who were not "really maximum".

The primary purpose of the Oxford Group and Wilson's drunks differed. The Oxford Group was seeking directives from God based on the criteria of the Four Absolutes, with the ultimate objective as world conversion to these principles. The alcoholics very simply wanted to stay sober themselves, and world-wide sobriety could not have mattered less.

Yet Alcoholics Anonymous is forever indebted to the Oxford Group. Bill W. found ideas, learned which guidelines would probably work with alcoholics and which definitely would not. It was during this period, 1934-1937, that Bill became aware of the three-fold aspect of alcoholism: physical, mental, and spiritual.

Informal meetings in a homey atmosphere produced sharing in depth. Alcoholics did not want to become public figures fighting for a cause; quite the opposite. Sobriety was a matter of that day alone, not the future. Preaching emerged as the poorest form of communication dealing with spirituality. Lifestyles which needed to change must do so because of a personal desire to make changes.

Alcoholics would remain sober...one day at a time.

CELEBRATING THIRTY-NINE YEARS OF A.A. SOBRIETY IN ORANGE COUNTY!!!!

SERENITY

CALMNESS OF MIND IS ONE OF THE BEAUTIFUL JEWELS OF WISDOM! It is the result of long and patient EFFORT IN DEVELOPING SELF CONTROL. Its presence is an indication of RIPENED EXPERIENCE and of a more than ordinary KNOWLEDGE OF THE LAWS and operations of thought.

A MAN BECOMES CALM in the measure that he understands himself as a thought-evolving being. Such knowledge necessitates the UNDERSTANDING OF OTHERS. ANOTHER RESULT OF CAREFUL THOUGHT! As man develops right understanding and sees more and more clearly the internal relations of things: THE ACTIONS OF CAUSE and EFFECT, he ceases to fuss and fume and worry and grieve . . . AND REMAINS POISED . . . STEADFAST AND SERENE!

THE CALM AND HAPPY MAN, having learned to govern himself KNOWS HOW TO ADJUST TO UNEXPECTED CIRCUMSTANCES AND HOW TO ADAPT HIMSELF TO OTHERS . . . and they, in turn, revere his spiritual strength . . . and feel they can learn from him and rely upon him. The more tranquil a man becomes—the greater is his influence, his success and his power for good. People always prefer to deal with a man whose behavior reveals equanimity and control.

THE STRONG, CALM MAN is always loved and respected. HE IS LIKE A SHADE-GIVING TREE IN A THIRSTY LAND. HE IS LIKE A SHELTERING ROCK IN A SEVERE STORM. THE EXQUISITE POISE OF CHARACTER IS THE FINAL LESSON OF CULTURE . . . THE FLOWERING OF LIFE . . . THE FRUIT OF THE SOUL! Keep your hand firmly upon the helm of thought. SELF CONTROL IS STRENGTH! RIGHT THOUGHT IS MASTERY! CALMNESS IS POWER! SAY TO YOUR HEART, "PEACE — BE STILL!"

HUMILITY

Humility is perpetual quietness of heart. It is to have no trouble. It is never to be fretted or vexed, irritable or sore; to wonder at nothing that is done to me, to feel nothing done against me. It is to be at rest when nobody praises me, and when I am blamed or despised, it is to have a blessed home in myself where I can go in and shut the door and kneel to my Father in secret and be at peace, as in a deep sea of calmness, when all around and about is seeming trouble.. THANK YOU

I wish to thank all the generous, sharing, and caring Orange County members who opened their hearts and homes to the visiting members from Australia and New Zealand. I am sure that our friends from "down under" will long remember the warmth of Orange County's welcome, especially the Welcome Get Together at Central Office the evening of their arrival, and the hospitality of the many local members and their families who opened their homes to them. Some for the duration of their stay here, and the other wonderful people who made sure that the visitors who were billeted at a local motel were taken to their homes for dinner and taken to local meetings. I am sure that the Aussies and the Kiwis (N.Z.s) join me in expressing their thanks for a wonderful ending to their trip to the United States for the 1980 World Convention in New Orleans. Your sharing the Love of our Fellowship proves again that "There are no strangers in AA-only friends we haven't yet met". Again Thank you. JoAnne A.

INTERGROUP HIGHLIGHTS . . .

The most important news from the August Intergroup meeting chaired by Lew was the announcement that JoAnne A. has volunteered to be chairman of the 39th Anniversary of AA in Orange Co. Meeting to be held at the Buena Park Community Recreation Center, 8150 Knott Ave., Sunday, August 24th at 2:30 PM. Food donations are needed. The Intergroup Association voted to cancel the Annual Picnic this year. It was also decided to combine the Alk-A-Thon and the Traditions Meeting this year which will be held at the Garden Grove Alano Club on Saturday, November 1st, from 12 Noon to 12 Midnight. The Traditions Meeting will be held from 5 to 7PM during the Alk-A-Thon. Jerry R. from Garden Grove volunteered to chair this. He will also complete the Special Events term. Due to circumstances beyond their control the positions of Special Events and Public Relations was open. Jerry R. from Garden Grove and Al S. was appointed to fill these jobs. Our Office Manager, Colleen C., is back at her job after undergoing major surgery last month. WELCOME BACK, COLLEEN!!! Many thanks to Sheryl K. for taking over for Colleen in her absence. We are most grateful to her.

DELEGATE'S MESSAGE

I have received a copy of the latest conference approved book "Dr. Bob and the Good Oldtimers." It was brought to me from New Orleans, where it went on first-time sale to the membership. Thanks so much, Frank S., for adding it to my library.

This book was announced to begin preparation after the April 1977 Conference in New York where the project was approved. Originally a joint biography of the two co-founders was planned but when this proved impracticable, it became apparent that Dr. Bob's biography should be writtedn first, before that of Bill W.

Dr. Bob's early childhood and youth was during the last of the century (he was born August 8, 1879) and very little is known of these early years. But the history of his alcoholism and as a recovering alcoholic is much more complete. These years especially after his last drink, June 10, 1935, are in the book a further revealing history of the start of Alcoholics Anonymous, of the struggles and trials of those oldtimers who gave us the beginning and early growth and development of our program as we know it today.

We are sure this volume will gain a wide acceptance among the members of the fellowship and I, personally, recommend it to every one who has begun our "happy road to destiny". It will be available in August at the New York Central Office.

One of the most moving recovery and acceptance stories I have read appeared in the HELLO CENTRAL , published by the Los Angeles Central Office of AA, in its July edition. Entitled, "Enter The Beautiful AA People". It is the work of Don L., of Alhambra. Most of us know of him or have read or heard him. It tells of an illness and hospitalization so graphically described, it will make you realize again, what rare and wondrous gifts we have been given in our lives as sober alcoholics in this fellowship. A request to the L.A. Central Office with self-addressed envelope and some postage will likely procure a copy for you. Address: 767 South Harvard Blvd., Los Angeles, Ca.90005.

THE 1980 WESTERN STATES DIRECTORY has arrived and again we peruse it with chagrin when we see how much misinformation is in it in regard to Group listings. Again we feel that the information contained in the Directories must be largely the fault of the secretaries, group representatives, local General Service Committeemen and those who do not follow through. The New York General Service Office prints only what is received regarding meetings, meeting places, times, and the contacts listed. Granted that in Southern California we have a tremendous turnover of group officers but in many instances groups are not very choosy in the "election" of their officers. The one-candidate election is all too prevalent. Also reporting to the Committeeman the changes, who in turn notifies New York of the information goes through the Delegate and this is a responsibility of the group if it desires to be listed correctly. Please do not blame the New York Office if the information about your group is incorrect.

From all reports the 1980 International Conference was the biggest and best yet. We heard many glowing reports and were happy to know that Southern California was very well represented not only in the number attending but also that quite a few were program participants. On to 1985 wherever it may be held!

...KEEP COMING BACK

Hearing that you didn't have to be a great writer to send something into the Lifeline, I thought I'd give it a shot. One of the first meetings I attended, something penetrated the confusion, fear and pain. "Bring the body and the mind will follow". Oh, how that helped. My biggest fear wasn't taking a drink, I didn't know if I could stay sober for any length of time, my biggest fear was being locked up in a padded cell. There wasn't any doubt that I had lost my thin hold on reality.

Of course, being the alcoholic that I am I wanted everything right away; serenity, release from guilt, remorse etc. Voicing my demands, I heard "Just keep coming back, things take time you know". Not wanting to hear that I kept coming back being my choices were rather limited. Happily I'm still coming back, loyng it with a Higher Power that I found through the program. After 14 months sobriety, I have no idea if I'm stable. The point is, I didn't have to drink today. So, to the newcomer who may be hurting in the mist of a fog, "Bring the body and the mind will follow".

SHARING

GROWTH IN A.A.

One of the ideas I've become aware of since being around the program of AA and Al-Anon is that it works to keep growing and expanding and letting go of limiting ideas. In my experience it is the same process for an organization as for an individual. In this letter I share my views of where that growth is needed in AA. Basic evils—things that don't work—have developed within AA through misinterpretation, misunderstanding, and even before that through some of the founders not seeing a larger view of life. I am not addressing the question of drinking but rather where we come from when we look at the problems we are working on. These are some of the positions, operating principles, considerations, beliefs, etc. that I see:

The "Big Book" states that as a group "alcoholics are . . . bodily and mentally different from his fellows. . . . We are like men who have lost their legs; they never grow new ones. Neither does there appear to be any kind of treatment which will make alcoholics of our kind like other men. . . . They are incapable of grasping and developing a manner of living that demands rigorous honesty."

Those statements imply that people with drinking problems are different, handicapped, and not normal. They intimate that there is a separation between "alcoholics" and other people, something I see as self-defeating and separating in this world when the opposite is what is wanted by us all ultimately.

There is a position in AA that the program "did it to me, for me and/or gave it to me" just as some think that alcohol is powerful enough to have caused the problem. Believing in a Higher Power is also the answer for me, however I see that it won't work to blame outside me and give credit outside me as if to put something else on a pedestal.

I think that AA is a valuable program and that what would work is to provide space for individuals to take responsibility for being the cause of their problems.

AA has some wonderful workable tools for life, and I would like to see it expand its context and let go of the basic tenets that don't work. Some of the statements demean who we are and our potential for and in life.

. Estelle S., Irvine.

REALITY

If there is one thing I can say is the guts of my program it is my attempt to see the reality of the moment as clearly and honestly as I humanly can. When I try to work on a false view of reality with a false exaggerated view of what I am, and when I am concerned about what I should be, I can do nothing because I am nothing.

But when I try to face reality as well as I can dimly see it with my weak self just as I am, I can do something. And no matter how little it is, that something is gloriously better than nothing. So these are the stormy feelings that come out of trying to surrender. There seems to be a frightening powerlessness in it. But there is the greatest power AT MY COMMAND in it

By surrender, as I used the word, I mean to surrender to what I really am. NO DEALS. NO, "wouldn't it be nice if?" just surrender to what really is. Sure I can't ever know reality as it really is, exactly, and that scares me. But I can see enough of it so that I can deal with it—and get better at dealing with it. I can't tell you how strange it feels and how hard it is to turn my back on a conventional way of living and dealing with situations using structures I know work. All I have to guide me is the feeling this might be a better way. Even with all the deep emotional rewards I have received during my time trying to work this program, I am still terribly shaken by deep doubts.

I hope I can find the courage to go on as I have. It would be very misleading if you felt I was doing something like this easily. You might feel that the difficulties you are having is a sign something is wrong with you. It isn't that. It is a sign you are working and making some hard choices.

There are a thousand ways I can run away from myself, and there is only one way of facing myself. Those are bad odds. And my temptation is to slip. So I struggle each day to avoid going crazy. Not mental institution crazy, but crazy in the sense that daily I will find myself cutting up people with mean words, killing people with my eyes, expecting people to be the way I want them to be, punishing them when they won't oblige and constantly judging everyone and everything. How can I know what anyone should do when I am so desperately needing and asking guidance for myself?

So many people make the mistake of thinking that because I can talk of these things

I can do them. I'm struggling as hard as I can to try to do them. I can't do them. It is so hard trying to be honest and live out in the open. It is so hard to love. And because I am so afraid to love—you are alone.

When you have trouble doing these things I am mentioning, don't worry. It is a sign you're alive, not that you're weak or a failure.

Surrender sounds like a simple idea, but it isn't. It is one of the biggest paradoxes I know of. Surrender means giving up, relaxing, floating with life. But the act of surrender is a conscious, coldblooded, deliberate act. It is a very unsurrendering thing to do, the deliberate act of surrender. So I don't understand the paradox, but I'm trying to surrender anyway. Lew W. -Anaheim

YOU MUSTN'T QUIT . . .

Success is failure turned inside out—
The silver tint of clouds of doubt—
And you never can tell how close you are,
It may be nearer when it seems afar:
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit—
It's when things seem worst that you mustn't quit!

WE CAN WIN

I have lied to myself for oh so long—
Newfound hope and honesty can't be wrong—
Why turn away with all the old fears
I've been granted the life I have wanted for years—
How do I keep this gift of mine
For only today and hopefully all time—
Reach out to the others and search deep within—
One day at a time, I know WE can win.
